The Battlefords News-Optimist, 23 February 2023
Ronald John Basset
1951 - 2023

BASSET: Ronald John Basset, better known as Ron or Buzz, of Battleford, SK, passed away at the age of 71, on February 13, 2023 at St Paul's Hospital in Saskatoon. Ron was born on June 24, 1951, in Saskatoon, SK. He was the oldest of 8 children born to Joseph "Joe" and Verla (Wilke) Basset. The family lived on a farm near Peterson, SK, where Ron attended school for grades 1 to 8. He attended grade 9 and 10 at Bruno Central High in Bruno, SK, and went to St. Peter's College in Muenster, SK for his grade 11. After high school Ron went to Kelsey Institute in Saskatoon, SK to take auto body and then moved to Thompson, MB for a short period of time. Ron moved back to Saskatchewan and resided in Humboldt where he worked for Gordon Cash. While living in Humboldt Ron met his wife Karon Wolsfeld and they were married on November 17, 1972, at St. Augustine Church in Humboldt, SK. In the summer of 1973, they welcomed their first son Rene Joseph. In 1974 Ron and Karon moved to Meadow Lake, SK where Ron worked for Acklands Bumper to Bumper. They then had their second son Russell Louis in the spring of 1977. In 1984 Ron took a job with Acklands-Grainger Inc. and moved the family to Tisdale, SK where they lived for 4 years. After Tisdale, Ron and Karon moved to North Battleford, SK then Battleford, SK where Ron worked for Aim Supply. Along the way they met many great people who became lifelong friends. They remained in the Battlefords for the rest of their lives. Although Ron had many health issues, he was not one to complain, in fact he did not talk about them at all. He was always optimistic and more interested in talking about the harvest or a sporting event. Ron was a real people person and enjoyed his daily interaction with his customers, the friends at the hockey rink, his coffee buddies and FaceTime calls with family. Ron enjoyed sports, whether it was watching his sons play hockey or golf, the Roughriders, the Blue Jays, the North Battleford North Stars and many other sports on TV. Once Ron's grandchildren arrived on the scene he enjoyed watching their hockey and baseball games along with the occasional dance recital. Ron was active in the community; you could find him preparing the track for the Meadow Lake Winter Festival or working a shift at the North Battleford Rink. Ron enjoyed helping Karon with the flower beds, keeping the grass in their yard green and helping his brother Jim with harvest when he could. Ron will be lovingly remembered by his two children: Rene (Jody) Basset of Saskatoon, SK, their sons: Nathan and Evan; Russell (Yvette) Basset of Lloydminster, SK, their children: Dolan Watt, Morgan and Brittney; his mother-in-law, Albina Wolsfeld of Saskatoon, SK; siblings: Verla Bentley of Viscount, SK, Jocelyn (Gary) Knihnitski of Saskatoon, SK, Mark (Connie) Basset of Peterson, SK, Carol (Bruce) Thiemann of Humboldt, SK, and Laura (Grant) Stahl of Regina, SK; sisters-in-law: Rhonda Basset of Saskatoon, SK and Linda Basset of Peterson, SK; Karon's siblings and numerous nieces and nephews. Ron was predeceased by his wife, Karon (2020); father, Joseph Basset (2014); mother, Verla Basset (1997); father-in-law, Aloysius "Louis" Wolsfeld (1974); brothers: Paul Basset (2007), James Basset (2012), Joseph Basset in infancy (1965); brothers-in-law: Blaine Bentley (2014) and Brian Timmerman (2009). A visitation for Ron was held Wednesday, February 15, 2023 from 2:00-4:00 p.m. at Eternal Memories Funeral Service - 2691 98st North Battleford, SK. Funeral Mass was held Saturday, February 18, 2023 - 1:00 p.m. at St. Vital Roman Catholic Church Battleford, SK with Father Sebastian Kunnath as officiant. Interment will take place at the St. Agnes Roman Catholic Cemetery - Peterson, SK at a later date. A recording of the funeral service and condolences can be found at www.eternalmemoriesfuneral.ca. Memorial donations in memory of Ron may be made to the BUH Foundation - designate to the dialysis unit - Box 1358 North Battleford, SK S9A 3L8. Funeral Arrangements have been entrusted to Eternal Memories Funeral Service and Crematorium - Vanessa Macnab Funeral Director.

Las Cruces Sun-News, New Mexico, 29 June 2011
Nobuko Bassett

Nobuko (nee' Fukunaga) Bassett died on Saturday, June 25, 2011, at her residence in the Village of Northrise, Las Cruces, New Mexico. She passed quietly while in the company of her daughter, Chikako, and close friends, Maki Peet, Gail Bamford, and Pam Miller. Nobuko was born on March 27, 1921, in Toyama Prefecture in central Japan. The eldest daughter, she grew up with four sisters and five brothers in a home surrounded by the forests and snowcapped mountains of Nagano. Early in her life, she developed an interest in sports and the arts, and eventually graduated from Nikadoo University with a degree in Gymnastics. Following college, she taught gymnastics at the local high school while pursuing her artistic passions and developing an artistic eye that led her to oils and watercolor. In the mid-1950s, she opened "Ra Chiquita," at the time, one of the few Italian restaurants in Japan and the only Italian restaurant in the country with a Spanish name. Patrons from around the region would flock to the restaurant where they could enjoy an Italian-Japanese meal of white sauce, fettuccini and sake while sitting fora hand-drawn sketch by Ra Chiquita's locally renowned artist-owner, Nobuko Fukunaga. Nobuko remained at the restaurant until she met Ray Bassett, a young American serviceman stationed in Japan. She gave her heart to Ray as he did to her. Ray married Nobuko and brought his new bride to the United States where Ray was eventually stationed at White Sands Missile Range, their home until he retired from the US Navy. Following his retirement, Nobuko and Ray traveled around the country in search of the perfect place to build their home. Their search led them back to Las Cruces, a place that Nobuko, in her way, described as, "everyone friendly." Nobuko lived happily with Ray for many years in their first and last and only home. She gardened, growing flowers, fruits, and vegetables. She found a love of classical music and would spend hours knitting while Mozart or Beethoven played in the background. Her true passion, besides Ray, was always art. During her time in Las Cruces, Nobuko perfected her technique and her reputation as an artist grew. Her award-winning still lifes, portraits and landscapes can be found throughout Las Cruces, a testament to her skill as an artist. Nobuko is preceded in death by her husband, Ray Bassett, USN retired; her parents; and two brothers and three sisters. She is survived by her sisters, Sumiko and Chieko and her brothers, Tetsuya and Yujoo. She is also survived by her daughters Chicako and Yaeko; her grandchildren, Daisuke, Hideko, and Hajime; and great grandchildren, Iori and Aoi. A celebration of life will be held at Village of Northrise, 2882 Hallmark Building, on July 1, from 3:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. Nobuko's remains will join those of her beloved Ray at Fort Bliss National Cemetery. Prior to her passing, Nobuko requested that, in lieu of flowers, donations be made to Hospice of Las Cruces. The Japanese family of Nobuko Bassett would like to express its thanks to the many residents of Las Cruces and the Village of Northrise who were Nobuko's friends and her American family. Arrangements by La Paz - Graham's Funeral Home, 555 W. Amador Avenue, 526-6891.

Etched in Stone: Archeological Discoveries that Prove the Bible

Paperback – February 27, 2018

by Lisette Bassett-Brody (Author), Lon Solomon (Foreword)

Etched in Stone: Archeological Discoveries that Prove the Bible is a quick, easy guide to archeological proofs to bolster one's faith and encourage believers of all ages. Etched in Stone showcases more than 60 archeological discoveries that prove the Bible is historically accurate and that Christianity is much more than just blind faith. Now you can have something tangible to show that the Israelites really did have to make bricks without straw, there really was a city called Nazareth, Nebuchadnezzar wasn't just a made-up king, Pontius Pilate did rule at the time of Christ, and much more.

Etched in Stone offers the reader a clear, concise summary of the biblical events surrounding each artifact. Maps at the back show where in the world the artifact was discovered letting you know the stories of the Bible are neither fictional nor allegorical.
